STANDING ORDER No. 16/2023

Sub: Reconciliation of data of Manual Out of Charged Bills of Entry - reg

Kind Attention is invited to the Trade Facility Notice No. 01/2023-24 dated 06.04.2023 its addendum dated 07.04.2023 and Trade Facility Notice No. 02/2023-24 dated 13.04.2023 for clearance of the perishable cargo and cold chain pharm grades with reference to CBIC Circular No 09/2023-Cus dated 30.03.2023.

2. Vide, Trade Facility Notice No. 01/2023-24 dated 06.04.2023 wherein, it was decided that in case of import of perishable cargo and Cold Chain Pharma Goods where the payment of duty has been done but the same is not being reflected in ICES, the Shed officer/Batch Officer allowed to grant manual Out of Charge. Further, Trade Facility Notice No.02/2023-24 dated 13.04.2023 facility of obtaining manual Out of Charge extended to all the categories of importers. Vide Tarde Facilitation Notice No. 03/2023-24, it was decided that, manual Out of charge would be given with prior approval of Commissioner of Customs (import), ACC.

3. Now, it has been decided to reconcile the data of Manual Out of Charge and to verify whether the duty against these Bills of Entry has been integrated with EDI system or not.

4. In view of above, a dedicated team under the charge of Shri M.Nagraju ,AC, Shed: I). Shri Jeetendra Pratap Singh, AO, II). Shri Sanganabasav S kollur, AO(in-situ), III). Shri Sanjeev Hooda, Supdt and IV). Shri Hemanth Kumar, PO will look after the following work:

- To verify whether duty payment is integrated with EDI system for Manual Out of Charged Bills of Entry or not.
- In case of Bills of Entry, which are not integrated with EDI system within a week, matter will be taken with DG System to resolve the issue.
- Identify all Bills of Entry which have been filed between 25.03.2023 and up to 12.04.2023 which are pending in queue for duty payment and Out of Charge still not given. Once these Bills of Entry are identified this team will contact each importer/Custom Broker and full understand why duty payment is pending and if the reason is that duty payment is not integrated/payment not showing on the EDI system and there is scope for taking alternate sample proof of payment of undertaking the same may be put up to commissioner for the grant of permission of Manual OOC.
