Subject: National Level Time Release Study (TRS) from 03.09.2019 to 09.09.2019 –reg.

The Central Board for Indirect taxes and Customs, New Delhi is conducting National Level Time Release Study (TRS), a multi-dimensional methodology which comprehensively covers end to end clearance and release process for measuring the average release time for goods under export and Import.

2. This National Level Time Release Study is being carried by M/s KPMG engaged by Government of India. The Air Cargo Complex, Mumbai is among the six Air Cargos selected for the study. The primary objective, as per action plan, is to conduct Time Release Study in order to eventually bring down the overall cargo release time.

3. In this regard, all the officers posted in Groups, Sheds Import/export Noting and other sections concerned with the import and export of the goods are directed to be extra vigilant during the period and should adhere to the instructions for smooth clearance of the goods .

a. No leave will be granted to any officer during the period except in case of emergencies.
b. Standing Order No. 01/2019 dated 02.01.2019 regarding First Appraisement Assessments/check to be followed strictly.
c. Import/Export noting staff should be careful and prompt in case of processing of amendments to facilitate quick noting of the Bills of Entry/ Shipping Bills.
d. Any issues/difficulty in the assessment/clearance of the goods should be bought to the notice of concerned AC/DC of Group, Shed who in turn shall bring to the notice of concerned JC/ADC for early resolve of the issue.
e. All sections to go through the Templates provided by the Board and to maintain manual records (which is not being captured by the System) for capturing the date and time as given in the Template during the period.

4. Participation, cooperation & support is essential for making the Time Release Study effective and successful. The Time Release Study published by the Research Team under the National Committee on Trade Facilitation (NCTF) will be used for further policy decision by Government of India.
